

TOP ACCREDITATION FOR BIRCHFIELD PREPCARE DAY NURSERY

As they 'go above and beyond to provide high quality care in all areas'...

Celebrations are high at Birchfield PrepCare Day Nursery in Albrighton today, as it reveals it has won a Platinum award – the highest possible level - from the highly regarded Quality Counts national award scheme, run by the National Day Nurseries Association (NDNA).

To commemorate their success, the children and staff at Birchfield PrepCare Day Nursery are this morning planting 132 seeds to represent the 132 areas they were assessed in, under the headings Play and Learning, Health, Safety and Well Being, Leadership and Management and Workforce.

Scoring at the highest level in each, its Quality Care certificate reads 'Birchfield PrepCare Day Nursery go above and beyond to provide high quality care in all areas.'

Sue Lawrence, manager at Birchfield PrepCare Day Nursery is thrilled with the award and comments, "We consistently work to deliver the very best care and environment for the young children that we look after in this very special nursery – to be recognised by such a well-respected national accreditation scheme in this way is wonderful and a testament to all the hard work of the team here. What better way to showcase the quality of service we offer."

Birchfield Prepcare Day Nursery is located at Birchfield School, making it an ideal environment for little people. Enjoying the wonderful grounds and facilities of the school, Birchfield Prepcare Day Nursery looks after pre-school children from six weeks to five years, all year round. Headed up by Sue Lawrence, the team of highly qualified staff are friendly, efficient, expert and award-winning in childcare.
